About this book

This book is from Youth Disability Advocacy Service or YDAS.

This book has some hard words.

XXXX

XXXX

Hard words are bold.

We will tell you what hard words mean.

You can ask someone to help you read this book.

This book is about our Rights to reality information session.

The information sessions will help you learn about your rights.

Rights are things that everyone should be able to

- get

- have

- do.

For example, all disabled young people have the right to go to school.

The information session will help you learn how you can stay safe.

How to tell us you want to come to the sessions

Fill in an online form to tell us you want to come to the sessions.

<https://shorturl.at/xwlqc>

Call us if you cannot fill in the form.

When the session will happen

The session is on Saturday 8 February

The session starts at 1:30 PM

The session ends at 3 PM

Where the session will happen

The session is at Kathleen Syme library.

251 Faraday Street Carlton

You can also come to the session online

What the form will ask

The form will ask for your

- name

- age.

The form will ask for your pronouns.

Pronouns are words you want people to use to talk about you.

Your pronouns might be

- she and her

- he and him

- they and them

- something else.

The form will also ask for your

- email address

- phone number.

The form will ask if you are in Melbourne to

- live

- work

- study.

The form will ask why you want to come to the information session.

The form will ask what you most want to learn in the information session.

For example you might want to learn to speak up.

The form will ask you to choose your access needs from a list.

Access needs are things that help you be part of the session.

The form will ask about dietary requirements.

Dietary requirements means food or drink you cannot have.

You must tell us you want to come to the session by 5 PM Friday 31 January 2025.

We will have another information session online.

You can tell us you want to come to the online session by

- email

- call or text.
